

Pink is a pig

"I mix up p
with b"

The word
pig begins with the letter 'p'.

Jack and Coco have a friend called Pink. Pink is a pig. Pink, Jack and Coco hang out in the shed in the garden and talk about things. Today Pink is telling Coco that pig begins with the letter 'p' not 'b' because Coco keeps getting 'p' mixed up with the letter 'b' for 'bag'. Pink gives Coco these words, which all begin with p to read aloud. Then Coco writes the words out.

"I can see how to write words
beginning with p
now"
